“ So many great memories come to my memory of him, when I was a little girl I spent a lot of time with the family in Miami. This would have been in 60's early 70's I thought the world of Bob & Barbara! They were more like parents to me I loved them so much and will always cherish my memories of those days! He started calling me Linnie and it stuck!

“ Visiting Lakeland and we decided to go to one of Barbara's favorite restaurants! Bob was leaving the restaurant and saw us there! He stayed while we ate and we talked and visited for hours! It was a choice memory. We knew Heavenly Father's hand was in that chance meeting!
