“ Praying for comfort and peace to Roxanna's family and friends. I remember our visits to your home when you all lived in Ironton, Ohio. Roxanna was always so cheerful and happy and just so pleasant to be around. God bless you sweetie and may you rest in peac. . I love you kiddo. And to Uncle Gary and Aunt Barb and litte Gary. You are in my thoughts and prayers. I love you all

“ Rev. and Mrs. Peck, James and Philip you are in my thoughts and prayers; I can only imagine how much you will miss Roxanna and all that she brought to us that knew her. She was a co-worker and friend during my short 20 months at Bartow Regional, I came to know each of you through her eyes and heart. She valued you in her life and always shared wonderful stories - Rev and Mrs Peck, you raised a beautiful and loving daughter who was a good friend and passionate about everything she valued in life. James and Philip stay close with each other keeping your grandparents near as Roxanna watches over all of you from Heaven. The world is a sadder place but we will find peace knowing she is with the Lord and had a full life.

“ While attending the Ironton Christian Academy many, many years ago, I was fortunate to meet Roxanna Peck, her little brother, and her parents. The Peck family was a big part of ICA. Roxanna was a year older than me, but we became good friends. Later on, the school closed. My family and I moved to Mississippi and the Pecks settled in Florida. We had lost touch, but through social media we reconnected. Almost 2 years ago, I was planning a reunion for ICA and I called Roxanna to give her the details. We talked for probably 2 hours. I will never forget it. She spoke with such life. Giving all thanks to Christ through some hardships she was telling me about. I strive to be that joyous even through the storms of life. She was passionate about a mission trip she had just taken and encouraged me to go if I ever got the chance. It was certainly an uplifting conversation for me. It truly caused me to seek Christ even more in my walk with Him. I can only imagine what glory she is experiencing right now. I know that she is singing and dancing at the feet of Jesus and for that I rejoice.

Peck Family~know that you are in my prayers while you say goodbye to your daughter, sister, and mother. I love you guys and I am so thankful that during my youth God brought the Peck Family into my life...even if only for a short time. But when we all get to Heaven, what a day of rejoicing that will be!!

Love and hugs,

Jan Smith

“ IT IS WITH MUCH LOVE THAT I WEEP WITH YOU IN ROXANNA'S PASSING AND YET AT THE SAME TIME I REJOICE WITH A BIT OF JEALOUSLY FOR SHE IS WITH THE LORD JESUS WHOM WE ALL LONG TO SEE ALSO! NO LONGER WILL SHE AWAIT THE STING DEATH, AND BECAUSE OF HER FAITH IN CHRIST JESUS, THE GRAVE HAS NO VICTORY OVER HER FOR SHE NOW DWELLS IN THE PRESENCE OF HIM WHO BOUGHT FROM THE BONDAGE OF IT ALL WITH HIS OWN BLOOD!
WOW, SHE HAS ENTERED NOW INTO THE JOY OF THE LORD!
[Matthew 25:23] SEE YOU SOON MY SISTER IN CHRIST JESUS!
