“ I have so many memories of this lady. I don't know where to start, she and Amos were great neighbors, we were lucky to spend time with them at their timeshare, always great to my granddaughters Kaylyn and Haley. Also she was always happy to see Cubbie our grand dog. We spent hours watching DWTS very fond memories. Jeanette you are going to be missed so much.
Love from Bob and I.

“ Dear Family of Jeanette,
Please accept my deepest sympathy for your loss. There would not be enough space here to tell of all the wonderful times Jeanette and I shared. We were so very lucky to have each other when both our husbands served their country in Hawaii. We loved to go bowling on Wheeler AFB and then have lunch at the Peach Garden Chinese Restaurant in Wahiawa. Over the years we visited each other's homes for wonderful dinners together and of course many, many games of pinochle. On visits to Leesburg GA for Denham family get-togethers, we would swat gnats together as we tried to eat our meal. I truly miss her and Amos. May God's peace and comfort be with you in the coming days.
Love, Karen Denham, Lenoir City TN
