“ Ms Sue was such a kind and loving person with a wonderful personality from the first day that I met her. I was assigned to be her caregiver and I continued in that capacity for going on 5 years. I wish my husband and I had met her and John before her illness because I could see that we would have had so much fun and become fast friends. We sat for hours and watched TV and did a lot of reading. We would have our Bible study every morning and just when I thought she had fallen asleep I would quit reading and her eyes would pop wide open as if to say 'I know you are not finished'. I witnessed how John worshipped her and loved her so. Without saying a word, this wonderful friend did more for me than I could ever have done for her. We could just sit and hold hands and know that all was well. I will miss you Sue and your whole family. I love you.

“ I met Sue when we were just 13 years old. She was a neighbor but we went to different schools until high school when she drove a car pooled for some of us with no licenses. She was always so up beat and nice. I looked forward to seeing her at our high school reunions. My sympathy to her family.

“ Sue was the kindest, gentlest person anyone could know. Sue never had a negative or hurtful thing to say about anyone. She enjoyed being with all of her friends and traveling. Most of all Sue was a family person. If Sue was ever upset or worried, it was never about herself but someone in her family. She was like a guardian angel to them all, Hovering over them all with her giant protective wings. Now she can always be there with her heavenly wings. Sue was always a great friend to me and Lonnie as well. We loved her dearly and after such a long goodbye, I will still miss her smiling face and loving heart.
