“ One of my favorite memories of Tatevik was how loving she was to Lucy. Not all people would spend so much time with a younger sister, but she was always holding her hand and playing silly games, making Lucy smile and happy. I loved watching the You Tube videos with Tatevik playing with Lucy, dancing and making funny faces. The three of us went to a car museum in Reno, and Tatevik found some old fashioned clothes at a museum, and I took a picture of her and Lucy in old fashioned hats, sitting in an old car. She never had to talk about being a kind person; her kindness and love was visible on a daily basis. Then they and their friends and family came to my house for my birthday. Tatevik's love for Lucy is visible in the photo. She was an inspiration.

Tatoshka became an angel who will look after all of us and protect... She was truly one of a kind, our sweet, amazing, kind girl. You will live in our hearts forever. We will miss your smile and soft voice more than anything. Rest in peace beautiful.

“ The following poem has given me comfort in loss. My heart is with all of you.

*Do not stand at my grave and weep
I am not there. I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow.
I am the diamond glints on snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain.
I am the gentle autumn rain.
When you awaken in the morning's hush
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry;
I am not there. I did not die.*
