What an awesome tribute to Tim. I wish I had stayed in touch with you all as we had grown up. But we all had our lives. I did have the opportunity to see him at the reunion up in Cranberry. He as did everyone looked great. Seeing pictures of Uncle Bob & Aunt Rose brought back alot of memories also, as did the pictures of Grandma & Grandpa. I am very appreciative of our family and lpok forward seeing everyone again, hopefully very soon. My deepest condolences to all for your loss of your Brother, Son and Nephew. I miss you all. Love to all. Rene', Aileen, Alex, Ryanne.

“ Tim would drop everything to help you out and crack you up with his sly humor. If you had the privilege of knowing Tim, you're a better person for it. This is one time we can't fully understand God's plan. Rest in peace Tim. You were loved by many.

“ I am without words over the loss of our friend Tim. He and I spent many an early morning drinking coffee on the porch at hunting camp, before we headed out to the woods. He and I were the "early guys", and always looked forward to working and hunting together. One of my best memories is the day he was working on my golf cart at camp. I came in from a morning hunt and found him working on it and I insisted he go hunting. True to Tim's nature, he was going to skip the hunt and was intent on fixing my cart. I told him I was not going hunting while he worked on my cart. I insisted and forced him to get his gun and get in my truck and go to the woods. He reluctantly agreed. He asked me where he should sit? I picked his stand and dropped him off. Well... I'm happy to say Tim killed a great 8 point buck 10 minutes after he got in the stand, and even before I climbed into mine. I could not have been happier for him! We joked and laughed about that every time we were together. I will miss him.
