Virginia was the sweetest lady and loved by so many. I met Virginia many years ago in the break room at Watkins Motor Lines. She had been on vacation and I ask her where she went and she replied that she had been visiting a really small town and she was sure I had never heard of it so I ask her where and she said Van, WV. I nearly fell over. I told her I graduated from Van High School and the look on her face was priceless. Her relatives, Margaret and Earl were my next door neighbors growing up. Virginia called them to tell them she had met me and from that day on we had so much to sit and talk about. Virginia's brother Roger and my Aunt Hilda were best friends in school. She couldn't get over how we were from the same town, went to the same school and knew the same people. She made me an apple stack cake cause she knew my grandmother use to make it for me. God put Virginia in my life for a reason and for that I am forever thankful. I missed the Services that were held for you yesterday because I didn't know until last night that you were called home. RIP my sweet friend.

“ As a child, I have many memories of my Aunt Ginny working on making a huge meal for the family to gather around. These meals always began with head hung and eyes closed for prayer. These family get togethers were sure to be followed with singing old gospel music. These moments were the foundation of my childhood. Aunt Ginny was always sweet, loving and very giving. She adored her family and loved God. I am thankful to call her my Aunt and take peace in knowing she is now rejoicing in heaven with so many of us that have gone before. My special thoughts and prayers are with her son, Chris and his family as well as her sisters. We love and will always miss the blessing of her sweet nature.

“ I will always remember our ministry as we played the instruments for worship at Crystal Lake Baptist Church and for your beautiful singing. I love you and will miss you. For all the sickness and pain you have been through, God has healed you completely. I know you are singing your beautiful music in the heavenly choir! May God give comfort and peace to your precious family!
